Philosophy:

Intuition, inner and outer guidance, and prevention are key aspects to emotional and physical healing, and our physiological processes do respond to this type of approach. Incorporating multicultural ways of healing, focusing on your soul's path-work, and attempting to heal old patterns and cycles are some of the many benefits to intuitive sessions. Through addressing positive and negative patterns, physical and mental health, and finding a therapeutic approach that resonates, one can work towards spiritual and ultimately physical health. Aimee has also developed the S.E.E.I.M Process, a framework that brings the client along in their own intuitive growth process using a collaborative, all-inclusive and educational approach to their wellness using cultural, spiritual, and psychological histories.

Client Rights:

The client has a right to complete and current information concerning the practitioner's assessment and recommended service that is to be provided, including the expected duration of the service to be provided;

Clients may expect courteous treatment and to be free from verbal, physical, or sexual abuse by the practitioner;

Client records and transactions with the practitioner are confidential, unless release of these records is authorized in writing by the client, or otherwise provided by law;

The client has a right to be allowed access to records and written information from records in accordance with sections 144.291 to 144.298;

Other services may be available in the community through licensed psychologists, psychiatrists, physicians, and/or spiritual and religious practitioners or counselors.

The client has the right to choose freely among available practitioners and to change practitioners after services have begun, within the limits of health insurance, medical assistance, or other health programs;

The client has a right to coordinated transfer when there will be a change in the provider of services;

The client may refuse services or treatment, unless otherwise provided by law; and

The client may assert the client's rights without retaliation.

Acknowledgment by client.
